CALL FOR SESSIONS

With the goal of diversifying and opening our program to participants willing to bring their own views and perspectives, we invite all interested individuals, groups and organizations from all over Europe to join our Green Academy with their proposals to organize a 90-120 minutes session in English or BHS/BCS around:

- Theoretical and policy perspectives of political ecology;
- Degrowth/postgrowth debates within and beyond the European Green Deal context;
- Progressive and green responses to energy and food crisis induced by the current geopolitical situation (war in Ukraine etc);
- Municipal responses to climate challenges;
- Feminist perspectives in political ecology and degrowth;
- Citizen deliberations, radical democracy and self-organisation

We are able to offer 6 two-hour slots in total for these sessions.

For the selected sessions we can offer covered accommodation costs and co-finance travel through reimbursements (max 50%).

Proposals should be composed of:

- Title of session
- Type of session or work methodology (lecture, panel, workshop...)
- Lecturer(s) and/or facilitator(s) – 1-3 people – including a short biography (500 characters) and contact details (e-mail address)
- Topic/issue – elaborate in max 1000 characters
- Motivation – elaborate in 500 characters

Please send proposals to vedran@ipe.hr by July 30.
